

Code of Conduct

All Marriotts Ridge High School Model United Nations Conference delegates are expected to comply with the Code of Conduct to ensure a civil and respectful work environment.

I, _____, have read the guidelines below and understand what is expected of me at the Marriotts Ridge High School Model United Nations Conference.

1. Conference delegates must treat everyone with the highest level of courtesy and respect.
2. Discrimination based on any grounds is prohibited.
3. Delegates must respect the property of Marriotts Ridge High School. Delegates will be financially responsible for any damage to conference facilities that result from their actions.
4. During the conference, delegates must wear business attire. Jeans, hats, sunglasses, and flip-flops are not allowed.
5. Delegates must be professional in their speech, actions, and appearance.
6. During committee sessions, delegates may only bring water into the conference room. Eating or drinking other beverages during formal meetings is prohibited.
7. The use of cellular phones and other electronic devices will not be permitted during committee sessions.
8. All conference participants and faculty advisors must remain within the Conference facilities as designated on the Conference map.
9. Delegates must be present during all committee sessions to ensure productive debate.
10. The organizers of the Conference are not responsible for delegates' personal possessions. Delegates are reminded to guard their belongings.

Rules are at the discretion of the chairs. Delegates who do not follow the Code of Conduct may be asked to leave the conference without a refund of their $20.00 delegate fees.
